New York, Sept. 19, 1877.

Dr. Tutt: Dear Sir—During this year I treat-of nine hundred cases of lung diseases. In the lawer wards of the city the cases were of a very severe type. It was there my attention was called to Tut's Expecterant, and I confess my surprise at its wonderful power. During a practice of twenty years I have never known a medical set as a recognition of with such happy. chects. It instantly subdued the most violen that of coughing, and invariably cured the disease in a few days. I cheerfully endorse it as J. FRANCIS HAY WOOD, M.D.

Regicides.

A paper published at Berno has compiled a list of all known attemps at assassination that have been made since 1850, under the heading 'Riesat Regieides." a term which, however expressive, is some ly accurate, inasmuch as the compilation includes attempts on the lives of magistrates and statemen, as well as on the lives of pricess and potentaies.

The first crime recorded in this register is the attempt made in May, 1850, by the Westphalian, Safelage, to shoot the King of Prussia, to the cry of "Liberty for alt." On June 28, of the same year, Robert Pate, a retired licutement of Hassars, struck the Queen of England with a cane—an assault, cortainly, but not an assault with intert to kill. In Outober 1852, a nonspiracy to blow up Louis Napoloon with an infernal machine containing 1,500 propolice. On February 17, 1853, the Emperor of Austria was stabbed in the back by a Hungarian shoemaker of the came of Libery. Oa the 5th of July following a second attempt was made on the life of Louis Napolconeon his way to the Opera Com que. On March 20, 1854, Ferdinand Charles III., Duke of Parme, was stabbed by an utknown hand. Part of the dagger remained in the wound which it infliced, and the Doke died after 23 hours of terrible suffering. The murdeter assaped. In 1855 the Italian, Pianoti, shot twice at the Figure Emperor in the Tuil eries garden. In Maich, 1856, a Spaniard of the name of Raimond Furmes was arrested just as he was in the set of firing a pistel at this sovereign, and the execution of his murderous design prevented. On D. comber 8, in the same year, Ferdinand II., King of the Two Siciles, was attacked at a review by one of his own soldiers, who wounded him with his bay-

In 1857 the Italian conspirators, Tibaldi, Bartoletti and Grelli, arrived in Parie, with the intention of murdering the emperor, but fell into the hends of the police force before their design could be carried into execution. On Jacuary 14 of the following year Orsini, Gomes, Pieri and Ru lin under their famous attempt to blow up the emperor and empress with bombi gearing.

In December, 1863, another attempt on the life of Napoleon was made he a band of Italian assassios. The attempt failed and the would be murderers were captured.

The same year the then Queen of Grecce was wounded by a pistol shot fired by the student, Dosios. Oa the 14th of April, 1865 President Lincoln was murdered in Ford's I'heatre at Washingtoo by the actor Booth, and Secretary Seward was dangerously wounded. A year later almost to a day the Emperor of Rus is was shot at by a man of good position of the name of Petrouik, in the gardens of his palace at St. Petersburg. A peasant who struck up Petronik's pistol, and so turned the shot aside, and in all probability saved the Emperor's life, was rewarded with a title of nobility and the commission of a captain in the army. The month afterward, or, to be precise, in May, 1866, Eugene Cohen fired five shots at Bismarck while the latter was walking Unter den Linden. in Berlin, one of which struck and slightly wounded the great minister. In June 10, 1868, Princa Michel, of Servia, and a lady of his family were brurally murdered in the park of Topeider. In 1872 Bismarck's life was again attempted, this time by a man of thoname of Westerwelle, and in 1874 yet again, this time by Kallmann, at Kissengen. August 5 1876, the President of the Ropublie of Ecuador, Gabriel Garcia Morene, was murdered in the Government House at Quito, and in April, 1878, a similar fate befell the President of the Republic of Paragnay. Oa May II, 1877, the German Emperor was shot at by Hoedel; and on June 2, less than a month later, by Nobi ing, receiving on the later ccc sion wounds by which his hite was seriously endangered. Nobiling killed himself in prison, while Heedel perished on the

On October 25th of the same year an attempt to a sas inate the King of Spain was made by the Socialist Moncas, who, taken red handed, paid with his life the ponalty of his crime .-Less than a mouth thereafter, November 17th, the life of King Humbert, of Italy, was attempted by Passanante, whose sentence of death was commuted, at his majesty's own instance, to one of perpetual imprisonment. Last year, as wil be fresh in the memory of all, the Empercr of Russia had two parrow escapes from death at the hands of his Nibilist subjects, and and the closing day of the old year witnessed the latest essav at regicide at present on record. the attempt of Otero to shoot the King and Queen of Spain .- Manchester Examiner.
